PRINCIPAL'S REPORT

- School Show Legally Blonde was a huge success, thanks to Ms Mullaney and Mr McGrath for their work on the show. It was all great, from visiting primary schools, to prizes for raffles, to tickets. Well done to all involved.
- Chromebooks – current first years have been asked to purchase Chromebooks for next year with Olive for Education
- Sporting success – across a variety of sports, CCS has had great success recently, and continued best wishes to teams still progressing in the various competitions. The Board would like to thank Mr McSorley and Mr Looney for the work carried out behind the scenes, and to all of the staff that are involved in coaching students. There is a significant time commitment by staff and it is greatly appreciated. The Board also thank Barry Collins Supervalu in Carrigaline for their continued sponsorship and support.
- Parents Association AGM was held last week.
- Newsletter to Parents / Guardians is well received.
